

NAAAP Lead Toastmasters

February 5, 2012

3:00 PM- 4:30 PM

Theme: Journey

Word of the Day: "Intrepid"

Call to Order

Jessica Moy

Welcome Guests

Toastmaster

Gigi de Gala

Table Topics Master

Yayoi Shaw

General Evaluator

Ivo Yueh

Timer

Roger Liu

Ah-Counter

Ying Chung

Grammarian

Eve Tang

Roles were explained by toastmaster and an additional "quizmaster" was added and performed by Phung Nguyen.

Inspirator

Kirk Matsuzaki

1-2 min.

Explained his involvement with helping establish NAAAP LEAD Toastmasters and got everyone fired up for chartering.

Speakers

Anson Snow: "Personal journey in religion"- His dad is Buddhist and his mom is Catholic with Buddhist believes. He is still on his journey to discover what works for him.

Ice Breaker Speech, CC1, 4-6 min.

Evaluator: Frances Scott

Donna Hansen: "Raised to be a redneck"- She was born in Okinawa and grew up in rural Florida. She talked about her childhood cow named "Fortune" and growing up in 4H.

Ice Breaker Speech, CC1, 4-6 min.

Evaluator: Dana Shankle

Additional Speaker

Curtis Eubanks: "Journey Towards Success"- Explained what we need to do as a chartered club to become a Distinguished TM Club.

Education Speech, CC10, 4-6 min.

Table Topics

Yayoi Shaw

Are you the type of person who plans before doing something or does something then plans?

Wayne Hsu – Depends on the situation, so has experience in both.

When you have a journey of 1,000 miles, and you still have a ways to go, how do you responsibly sustain your journey?

Tien Pham- He likes to travel whether it is somewhere near or somewhere very far.

How do your past goals relate to your current goals?

Jessica Moy – Past goal was to be an actress in Japanese commercials. After fulfilling that goal, has higher goals to help community.

How had your journey helped you find ways to help the community?

Tom Migaki – Being more senior in the community, he has had the chance to reach out to many different organizations and help.

Evaluations and Reports

Ivo Yueh

Speech Evaluations

Frances Scott (-Anson's speech): Could not tell he is new to speaking in front of people. Very confident, used stage and hands well and engaged the audience.

Dana Shankle (-Donna's speech): Good intro, engaging, and talked about her cow. Used very expressive phrases. Could slow down the speech a bit.

Ivo Yueh- We started on time, but people were still getting settled for first couple of minutes. Great attendance and very likely we can become a Distinguished Club in July recognition.

Timer

Ah-Counter

Grammarian

General Evaluator

Roger Liu

Ying Chung

Eve Tang

Ivo Yueh

Contest Winners

Curtis Eubanks

Prepared Speech: Anson Snow

Table Topics Speech: Wayne Hsu

Evaluation Speech: Frances Scott

Closing Remarks

Attendance: 29

Alexandria Joo, Curtis Eubanks, Dana Shankle, Donna Hansen, GiGi De Gala, Jessica Moy, Kirk Matsuzaki, Ted Tzeng, Byran Yee, Eve Tang, Ivo Yueh, Kelly Trujillo, Krystal Tubbs, Wayne Hsu, Wendy Barile, Xiao Liang, Ying Chung, Roger Liu, Clifton Moy, Tom Migaki, Anson Sno, Cathy Li, Yayoi Shaw, Erik Ong, Frances Scott, Tien Pham, Phung Nguyen, Henry Huang, Herman DeGala

*Club Business: We needed at least 2/3 of the paid members to vote to charter, and 18 were in attendance and voted. We officially have enough members to charter.